

Phrasal Verbs

TAKE

off, over,
after, up,

take up

take after

take over

take off

take off

A

Match the phrasal verb 'take' with their meaning.

1. to resemble.
2. to gain a control.
3. to start a new hobby or interest.
4. to leave.
5. to remove clothing.

B

Replace the words underlined with a phrasal verb.

1. When is the plane leaving? I have to catch another flight.
2. He resembles his father. He is very short tempered.
3. As soon as he came home, he removed his shoes and went upstairs.
4. The new owners gained control of the company, otherwise, it will be bankrupt.
5. My mother started playing tennis after a long time.

LOOK

for, after, up,
into, forward to

Look after

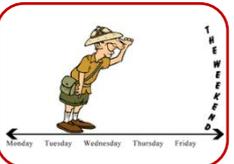

Look for

Look into

Look up

Look forward to

C

Match the phrasal verb 'look' with their meaning.

1. to search for the information
2. to take care of someone or something.
3. to search for something or someone.
4. to wait for something pleasant happens.
5. to investigate

D

Replace the words underlined with a phrasal verb.

1. I'm searching for my keys. I can't find them anywhere.
2. If you don't know the meaning of the word, just search it in the dictionary.
3. When my parents are away, I have to take care of my little sister.
4. At the end of the day he was eagerly waiting for his holiday.
5. The police was investigating how the accident happened.

Key

A)

1. take after
2. take over
3. take up
4. take off
5. take off

B)

1. When is the plane taking off? I have to catch another flight.
2. He take after his father. He is very short tempered.
3. As soon as he came home, he took off his shoes and went upstairs.
4. The new owners took over the company, otherwise, it will be bankrupt.
5. My mother took up playing tennis after a long time.

C)

1. look up
2. look after
3. look for
4. look forward to
5. look into

D)

1. I'm looking for my keys. I can't find them anywhere.
2. If you don't know the meaning of the word, just look it up in the dictionary.
3. When my parents are away, I have to look after my little sister.
4. At the end of the day he was looking forward to his holiday.
5. The police was looking into how the accident happened.